Dear Parents and Carers

Black Prince Celebrations – Bank Holiday Monday May

We are looking for at least 24 children from Years 1-6 to take part in the local Black Prince Celebrations on Bank Holiday Monday 1st May. Vanessa Burton will be training the children and will be leading them on the day. If you can help support this event on the day, please let us know.

Children will need:

- To be dressed in red and white (the traditional Black Prince colours).
- To be supervised throughout by a parent/adult carer on the day
- To be able to attend roughly between 1.45pm - 4.15pm in Kingsand and Cawsand.
- All children are asked to meet outside the Community Hall at 1.45pm to dance at 2pm and then take part in the procession that will leave at around 2.30pm to go to The Rising Sun for the crowning of the Fourlanesend May King and May Queen. The procession will then continue to Cawsand Square where the children from Fourlanesend will dance round the Maypole at approximately 3.45pm.

If your child is able to participate please complete the form below ASAP. It is really important that if your child commits to this that they MUST attend on the day. Please note all timings may be subject to change.

Yours sincerely

Rebecca Norton

My child/children _____ can participate in the Black Prince Celebrations in Cawsand on 1st May between 1.45 – 4.15pm. I understand that I or another named adult will supervise them throughout the day.
