

Why is the word 'God' so important to Christians?

Class Plym 2023/2024

RE

Spring 1

I can think about the difference between alive and not alive

Jelly is not alive but a jellyfish is. A jellyfish eats fish and plants but Mrs Boyle's jelly doesn't have a mouth.

Christians believe that God made the jellyfish and all of the world.

The jellyfish has tentacles but the jelly doesn't.

What do Christians believe the creation story is all about?

- We tried to be like a God creating something but it didn't come alive. Creation story - God makes everything

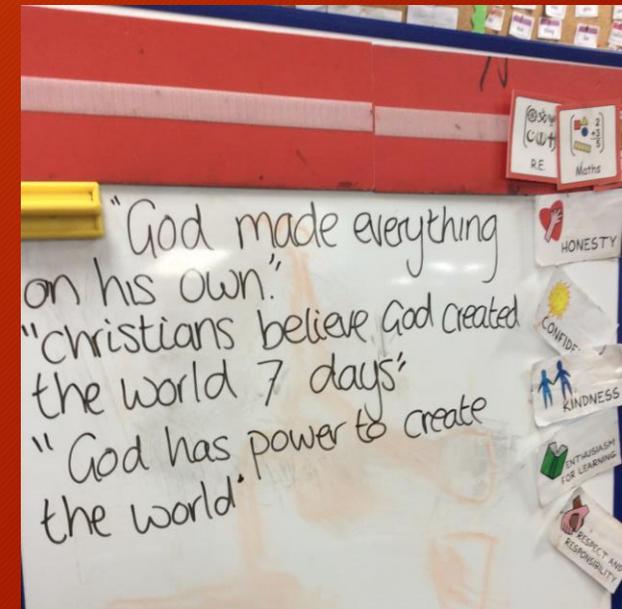

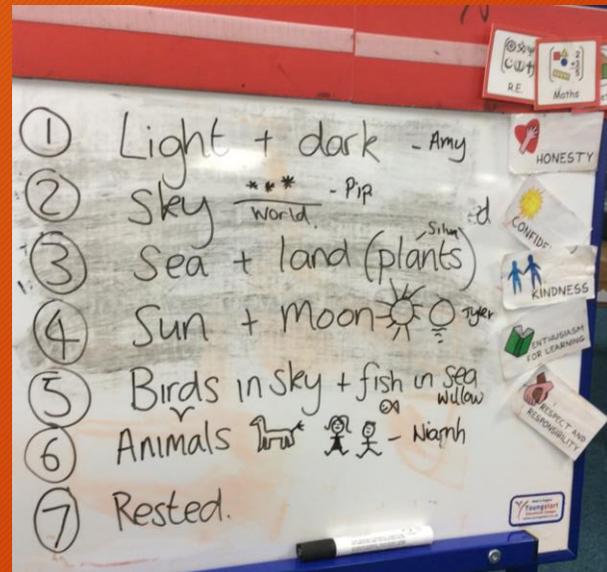

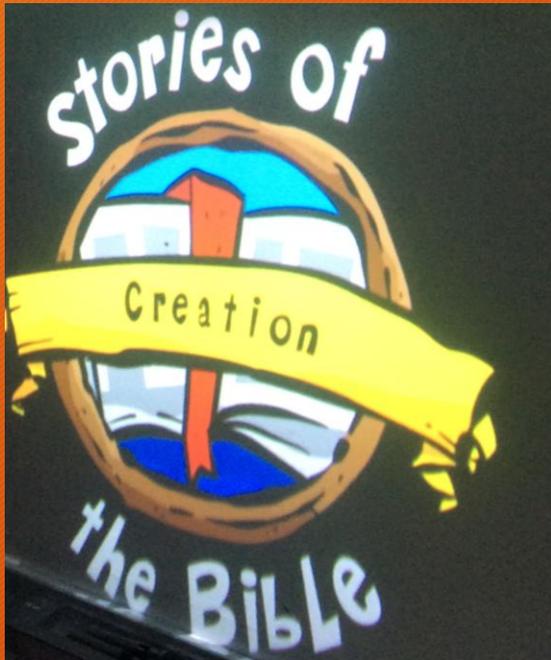

Mine didn't come to life because I'm not special like God.

The creation story is where Christians believe God made people and life and he made animals and the land.

Why is the creation story so important to Christians?

- The world is created in six days and it is an important story because it showed God created everything so he must be special and powerful.

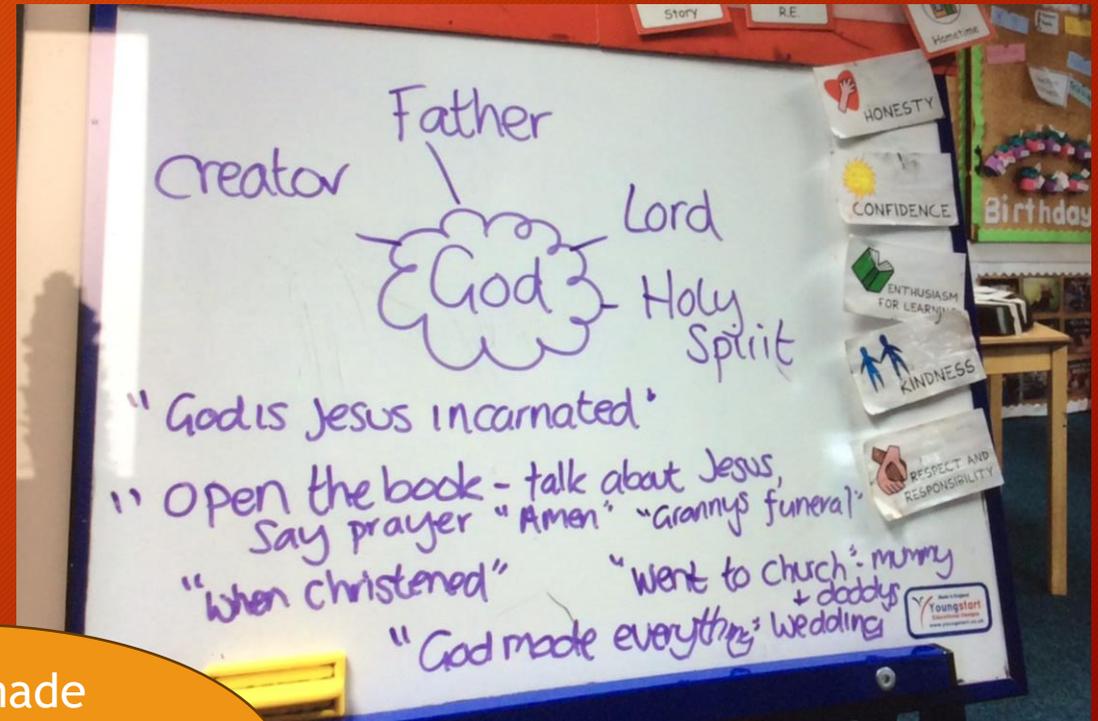

I can think about other names we might give to 'God' based on what I know about him.

He's like an inventor or a creator.

If God made everyone then he is a bit like a dad isn't he?

So why is the word 'God' important to Christians?

We just created the world in a tuff tray - nothing came to life.

I remember the different parts of the Creation story. We need animals and sea creature snow.

God created the world so his name is very special to Christians.
