I know about the gunpowder plot?

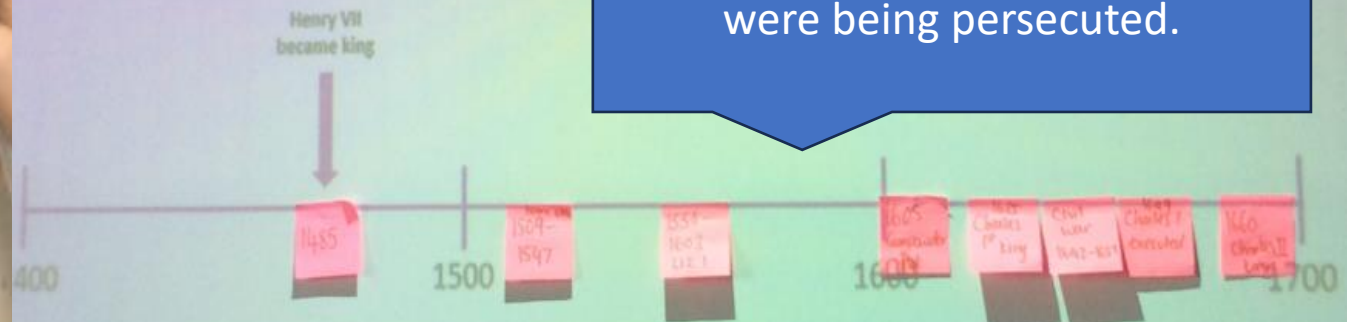

We shared what we already knew about the gunpowder plot before building on our knowledge. We plotted the key events on a timeline. We learnt Guy Fawkes was not the leader but was the man that was caught in the act of trying to blow up the Houses of Parliament.

Guy Fawkes was also known as Guido.

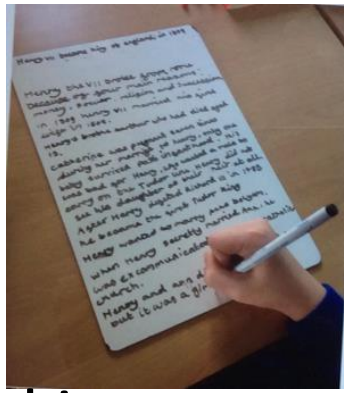

It's hard to believe people were hurt or imprisoned because of their faith.

Robert Catesby was the leader, and he didn't like that Catholics were being persecuted.

I know how Henry VIII change the way we worship.

We went back further in time to see how the religious faith changed in Britain. We looked at how Henry VIII changed the country from a Catholic state to the Church of England.

The country became mainly Protestant and Catholics were forced to worship in private.

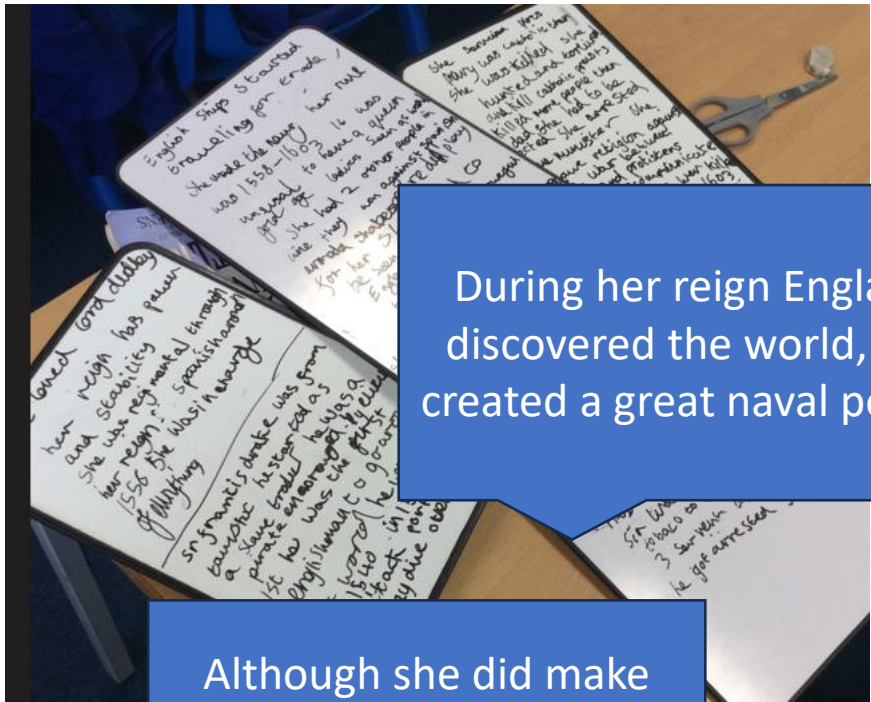

Henry wanted a son so he would succeed him on the throne.

He kept marrying different woman until he got what he wanted.

Henry VIII got rich from this too as he took over the monasteries and sold their belongings.

I know why Elizabeth I's reign was known as a time of exploration and discovery.

Elizabeth I's reign had positive and negative aspects on England. We investigated these and the issues she faced during her reign.

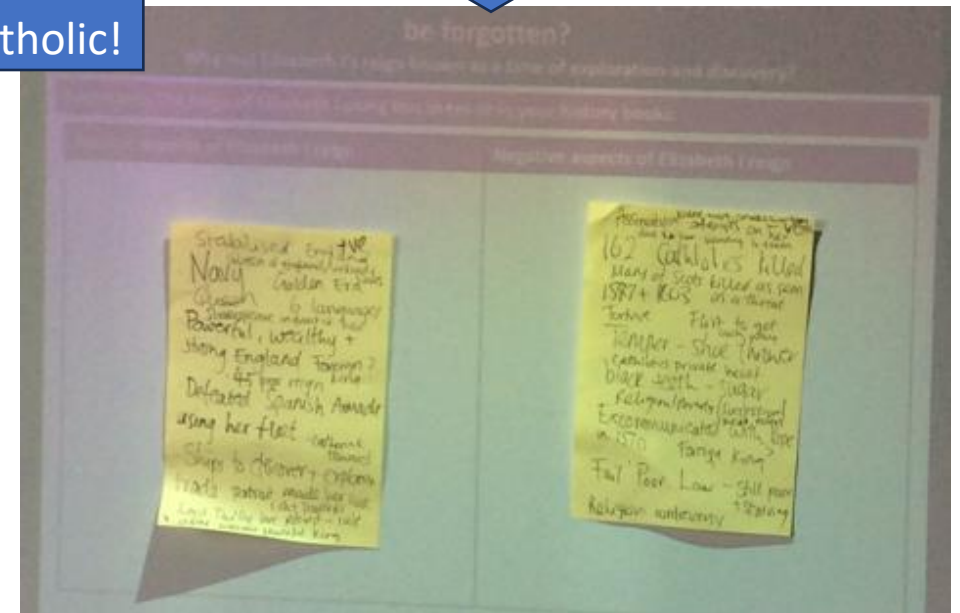

During her reign England discovered the world, she created a great naval power.

The image shows several sheets of handwritten notes on lined paper. One note mentions 'Elizabeth I started travelling for England' and 'she made the name of England'. Although she did make England strong and stable.

I didn't realise how many people she executed because they were Catholic!

Her Poor Law to stop poverty didn't work!

I know why we had a civil war and who the roundheads and cavaliers were.

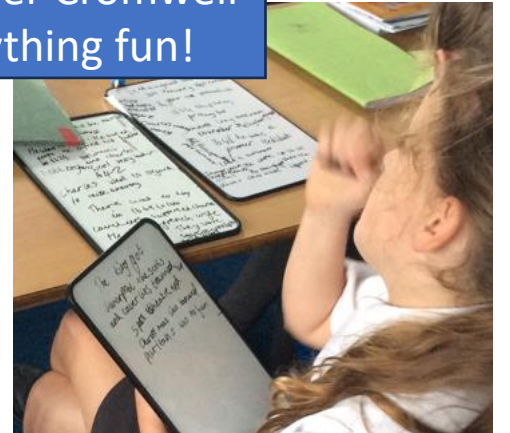

We looked at how the unrest between protestants and Catholics continued into the Stuarts. We discussed how parliament was dissolved for many years under Charles I as he believed he was chosen by God and he wanted to rule the country his way.

He was the first king to be executed!

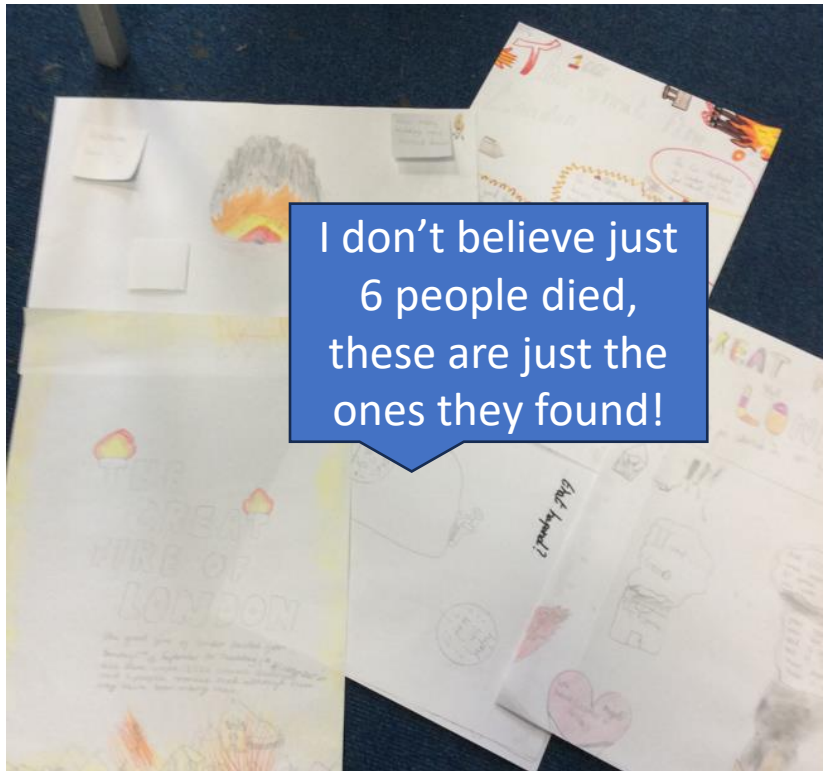

I'm not sure whose side I would be on as the Cavaliers were Charles men and he ruled the country without guidance. The roundheads had Oliver Cromwell who banned everything fun!

I understand why the Great Fire may have been one of the best things that happened to London.

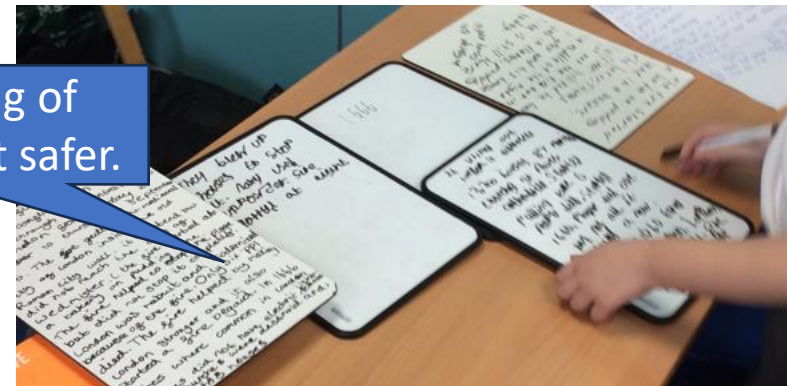

We looked at the facts around the Great Fire of London and compared them to England today. We discussed how the shape of London changed and buildings were improved, and a fire service established.

Lots of people became homeless.

The rebuilding of London made it safer.

I know why the gunpowder, treason
and plot should never be forgotten.

We recapped on all our learning for the Tudors to the Stuarts and how the events of the time shaped the British Empire.

It's amazing how much happened during this time and strengthen our country – even if there were some bumps along the way!
