8th June 2018

Message from Head teacher: Congratulations to our school council who have achieved the Bronze PADL Award - Promoting Active Democracy Loudly. We have just received confirmation of this and are making arrangements to take them to the council offices in Truro to receive their award alongside other schools on Friday 22nd June. All members of the school council will be offered the opportunity to attend. We plan on using the train from St Germans again. More information to follow next week.

Class News

Class Lynher - We have been making and learning about periscopes. We learnt how to read music and what the musical notes are called. In PE, we have been practising for Area Sports: throwing the javelin and running various races. By Maisie & James

Class Tamar - We have made the axles for our cars for the Primary Engineers competition. We did some research about plastic (the benefits and problems) and found out some interesting facts. We have also planned a letter to our MP regarding the plastic waste problem. We have also been practising for Area Sports, including dodgeball. By Elyse & Taylor

Class Cremyll, Yr1 & Plym - We have been perfecting our ball skills: throwing, catching and fielding. We have been learning about the 4 R's: Recycle, Re-use, Reduce and Repair. We designed our own recycling superheroes and wrote descriptive sentences about them. We have written questions that we would like to find the answers to about the 4 R's. By Mya, Jasmine & Poppy
